STUDENT LIFE

Each is his own at Southern! Whether he's President of the Student Council, on the Homecoming Court, or a member of the Office Aides, he's free to express his own personal ideas in which to help better the future of himself and other students at Southern High School. As each student participates in the activities of Southern, he develops his own values and goals while learning about life, about others, and most of all, about himself.

Shower the People

Homecoming
'76

This year's Homecoming Queen was Judy Custer. Judy was a G.A.A. member and the decoration chairman for Homecoming. The day of the dance Judy had to take her SAT test and could not supervise over the decorating. She did not know if the decorations would turn out as planned so naturally her nerves were shot.

Judy felt that being Homecoming Queen was an honor and any GAA member would be excited over the title.

The week preceding Homecoming was filled with various events, some of which were crazy sock and hat day, lick-em day, red and white day, a scavenger hunt, and a bonfire. The winners of the scavenger hunt were given a free pass to the game on Friday night.

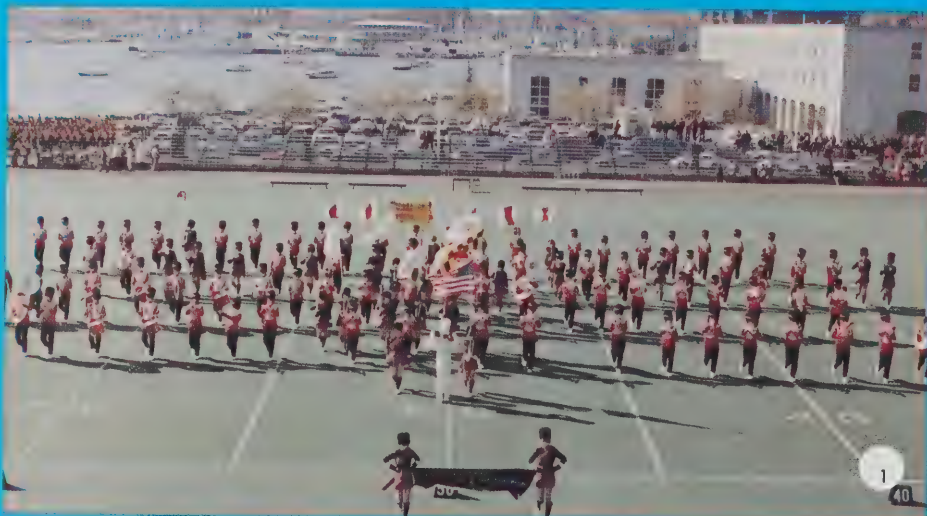

The pep assembly Friday afternoon included a pom-pom routine performed by Senior High Majorettes and varsity cheerleaders. There were various chants and cheers and many selections played by the Senior band. The cheerleaders also played a stunt on six of the football players who were blindfolded and unknowingly kissed by their mothers.

Friday night was the Homecoming game. The Southern Rams were defeated by the Northern Huskies, twelve to zero. All in all the events of the week made Homecoming 1976 a memorial event.

1. Tildon Wilt, Kelly Beard 9th grade; Bob Wolf, Sherry Umbel 11th grade. 2. Doug Field, Jeanine Shank. 3. Ken Stinson, Aleta DelSignore 12th grade; Dave Browning, Becky Morris 10th grade. 4. The Southern Highlander Marching Band practiced many long hours in mud, rain, and even snow preparing for their trip to the Festival of States Competition in Florida. This trip was most memorable for the seniors as well as for the entire band. Many practice hours were put into use while in Florida, but right after practice everyone raced for the beach.

The band traveled frequently throughout the year. Among the travels were the Maryland Band Day in College Park, Md., and the Naval Academy Field Show Day.

1. The band performing at the Naval Academy. 2. Preparing for Florida. 3. The Southern Highlander Band. 4. Practice makes perfect. 5. Kathy Thomas performs! 6. Mike Dressman shows winning form. 7. Mr. Clever has 'em do it one more time. 8. Mr. Clever, are you yelling again?

Stage Band Rocks On!

1. Tim Filemyr and Bill Ashby spark to stage band music. 2. Brenda Savage, Lois Filemyr and Kim Welch play on. 3. Mike Dressman leads the trumpets to another fine year. 4. Lyz Grant plays her second favorite instrument. 5. The 1977 Southern High Stage Band.

Cadet Band Marches On

1. Bart Sweitzer and Bill Ashby don't know what's going on or where to go. 2. Steve Ritchie leads the Band down the streets of Oakland during a morning parade. 3. The Cadet Band poses for a picture. This group has worked hard all year long, backing up the Sr. Band and traveling extensively.

The Many Phases of the Band

1. Drum Major Steve Ritchie says "Do I have to Rocky?" 2. Band Director Mr. Richard Clever . . . 3. Jay Sowers and Carl Hanline blowing their little hearts out. 4. Color-guard is serious business, isn't it Deb Savage? 5. Gale Bosley and Roberta Johnson, one big laugh after another! 6. The band plays at a memorial service. 7. The Color-guard is tired after a long parade. 8. The Clarinets practice hard for a great concert season. 9. "Is this where we sit?" says Todd Liller. 10. The Stag Band is at it again and in great form.

The Band Puts It All Together

1. Sr. Majorettes: Val Herndon, Aleta DelSignore, Pam Trickett (head), Brenda Savage, Gale Bosley, Teresa Cas-teel, Teri Riggs, Brenda Snyder. 2. Cadet Majorettes: Mary Jo Bolding, Kayla Savage, Drum Major Kevin Tephabock, Lena DeWitt, Aimee Hanline (head). 3. Brenda Snyder shows her form. 4. The Fife Corps adds style and flash to the band: "A find addition." 5. Kayla Savage knows that the band is hard work but worth it. 6. The Highlander Color Guard is the precise and military section of the band. 7. The row that keeps the band moving is definitely the drummers. 8. Cindy Greenwood — have piccolo, will travel.

The Class of '78 Presents "Harvey"

The Class of 1978 came together and put on a fabulous production of the play "Harvey" by Mary Chase. It took a great deal of work to make this play a success but by the reception of the public, "Harvey" indeed was successful.

Rehearsals were long and tedious but not without humorous things happening. Rodney McMillen wore a dress to one practice. Jaime Alvarez came out, in one scene, in a sheet instead of a bathrobe. A pot of flowers with water in it was to be poured over Scott Heginbotham's head but needless to say Scott drank the water.

A few accidents happened too. Bill Ashby smashed his hand between the wall flats. Rodney McMillen broke his foot when Jennilee Stemple fell on him!!

Set changes were a riot. The first time the cast and crew changed the scene it took four minutes. This had to be cut down to one minute resulting in total chaos, millions of bruises and a few broken flats.

The play was a great success thanks to the excellent direction of Jane B. Avery assisted by student directors Lesa Whitehair and Debbie Herndon.

SPORTS 1976-1977

Thrilling victories and depressing defeats climaxed a year of determination in Southern Ram Athletics this year. The football team, with a 1-9 record, had a young team but showed a great outlook for next year's team. Basketball season was a great excitement this year. Missing their chance at College Park by one point, they ended their season with a 17-8 record. The wrestling squad showed their ability by pinning a 3-7 record.

The girls in sports winded up the year, not with a victorious record but, instead, one that showed willpower and determination. The girls basketball team shot to a 4-7 record as the girls volleyball team struggled to a 1-11 record.

Spring brought spirit and victories as the baseball team swung their way to a winning season as they hit a 9-5 record. Golf, as Southern's most continuous winning sport, led themselves to a 26-0 record, giving them an overall record of 105-1. Showing the Ram pride every athletic at SHS strived for the ultimate goal of VICTORY.

The 1976 Varsity Football team was young compared to previous years because many positions were open due to the Class of '76.

The Ram team ended with a 2-7 record in which they lost most games by less than six points.

This year's team had a few talented seniors. Rodney Bowers was selected to the Tri-Valley Conference while Eric Cvetnick received the Golden Helmet Award for being the most outstanding player.

Coach Jim Miers, who is retiring from his position as head football coach, had this to say: "They were a great group to work with and they have helped prepare next year's team to be one of the best ever."

J.V. Has Winning Season

The J.V. Rams fought to a 5-4 season under the direction of Coach Dave Bosley. After losing the first two games, the Rams came back to win the next four. In the final game of the season, Southern revenged their earlier loss to Valley with a 16-6 victory.

The offense was quarterbacked by Delbert Liller and powered by the exceptional performance of running backs Dave Browning and John Toston.

The presence of the J.V. Cheerleaders and enthusiastic crowds of parents and students was a welcome support for the Rams. There was always someone there to back up the coach and his team.

The defense was good but it could have been better. The Rams had a lot of trouble protecting against the pass. Linebacker Harold Harsh contributed his talents along with safeties Dave Browning and Dave Rebele.

1. Dave Browning (24) charges for extra yardage against Kingwood. 2. Doug Devlin sets up on defense. 3. Dave Browning (24) and Dave Rebele (86) anxiously await a punt. 4. Coach Dave Bosley prepares for another J.V. win. 5. Ed Roszell (24) sets up interference for Dave Browning.

Rams End Season

As the Rams opened their season with a tough win against Valley followed by three losses, there was much scepticism among the Southern fans as to the expectations of the team.

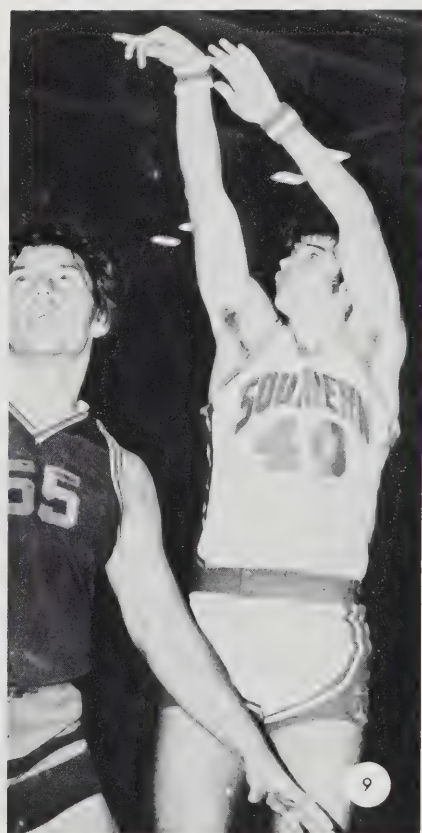

But with a lot of hard work and much determination, the Ram team soon proved themselves and restored faith to the excited fans.

Coach Don Stemple had this to say about the team.

"I think considering we had only two players with experience returning from our 76 College Park Team, our 17-8 record was very respectable. What we lacked in talent and experience we made up for in hustle and determination. The 1977 team became a fine example of Ram Basketball tradition."

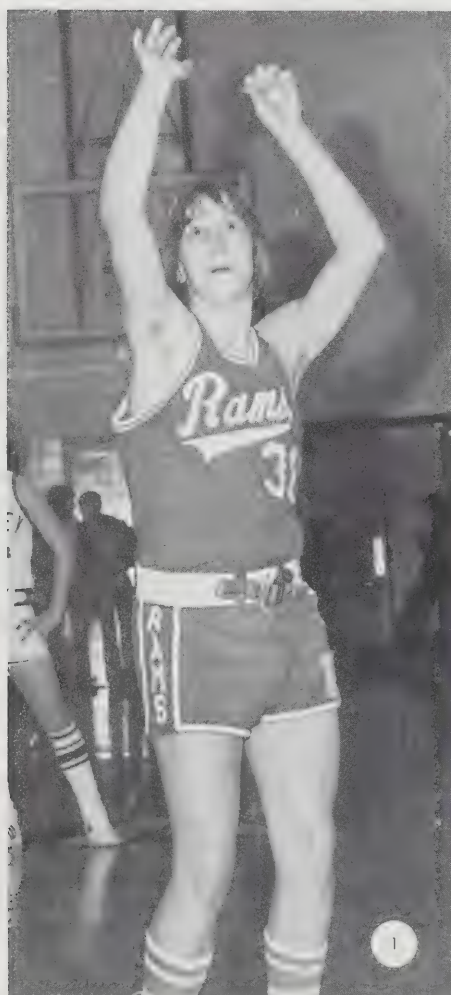

With 17-8 Record

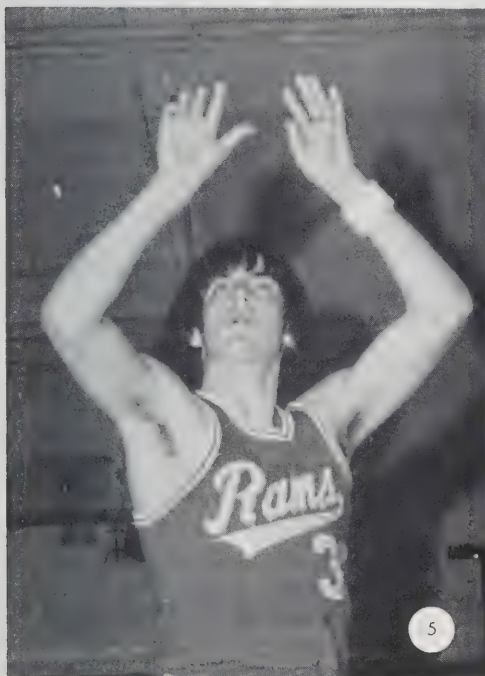

1. "We're No. 1" says Ken Niner. 2. Ken Niner — most rebounds in one game 34, most 30 point games 6, most points by a senior 599. 3. Fred Griffith — best foul shot percentage 77 3/4. 4. The J.V. basketball team had a great 1976-1977 season, although their record did not display it. The potential that the Jr. Rams had was shown amazingly well in their revenge wins against Petersburg and Northern, as well as in their defeats to Beall, Bruce, and Union. Coach Woy's continual coaching efforts paid off in the teams last five games of which four were victorious. Few of the team's losses were by as much as 15 pts., and many were by a narrow margin of 2 or less pts.

The Jr. Rams achieved a total of pts. throughout the season. Jim Gatian assisted by his teammates contributed 223 pts. to this total.

The Jr. Rams concluded their season at the sports banquet by giving awards to Brad Bittinger as "M.V.P." and "David Kahl as Most Improved Player." It was a great season overall which left many happy memories.

The Freshman Basketball Team this year was one to be proud of. With a record of seven and four, we went all the way to the Potomac Valley Conference Championship game.

Playing against Wardensville Junior High, we ended our season as runner-up in the P.V.C.

Keeping our hopes and spirits high, we had to swallow loses to Keyser, Bishop Walsh, Allegany, and Elk Garden.

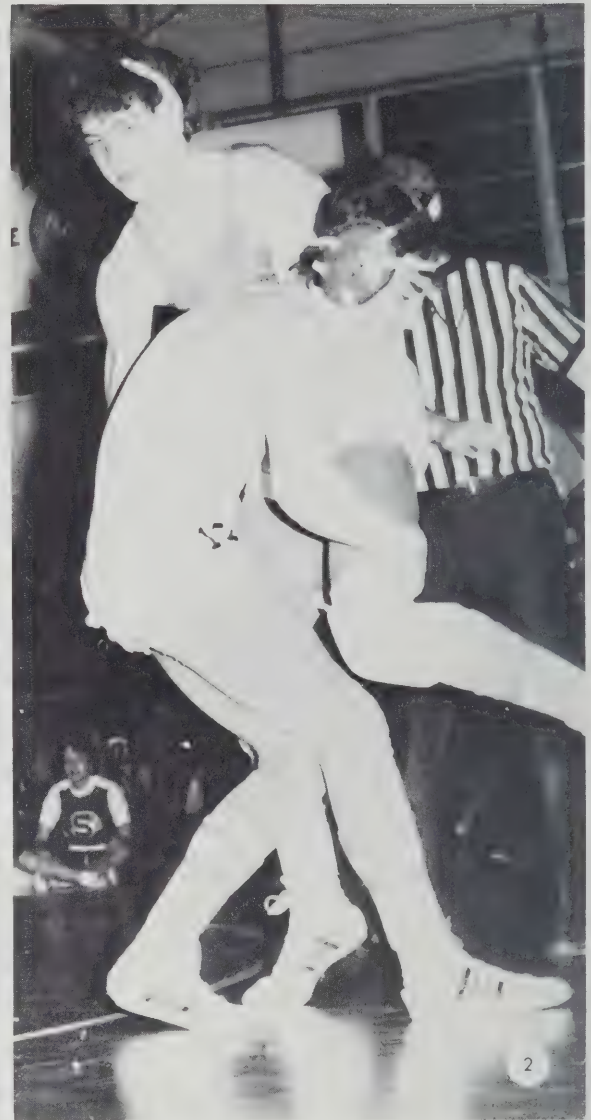

Coach Ken McLaughlin did a terrific job coaching and handling the boys. His help guided us through the worst of situations and the best of victories. We owe him our success.

The lead scorer for the season was Terry Lucas with 144 points. The second highest was Delbert Liller. At the sports banquet, awards were given to Doug Devlin for best defensive player and to Terry Lucas as most valuable player.

David Hershman received an award for recovering the most rebounds at a pizza party. The team, coach, manager, and cheerleaders had a party at the Pizza Pub as a reward to everyone for their contribution to the super job that was done. It was a fun and fantastic season. Wait until we get to varsity!!

Over With Excitement

1. Tri-Captains Pam Trickett, Susan Eberly, Mary Crumley. 2. Susan Eberly starts the game off by breaking the hoop against Northern. 3. Mary Crumley looks up after a hard half to see the score. 4. Mrs. Helen Rostovsky instructs Bonnie Early and Lois Filemyr on how to execute a lay-up.

Everyone worked hard this year, even coming to practices during our January "vacation." Fighting through snowdrifts, and coming home from games when the wind was blowing so hard we hoped the bus driver could see the road. It was quite a year to remember. Three seniors will probably remember it forever. They are the Tri-Captains, who have been playing since the beginning of Girls Basketball here at Southern. The biggest event this year was beating the Northern girls by "1" point.

A new sport came alive for girls at Southern. Volleyball looks easy but is very difficult to play.

The Rams put all their might into the season. For a first year job, Mrs. Helen Rostosky had her hands full. The team had some defeats but still played as a team and worked hard.

Although injured fingers and twisted feet slowed them down, they got the Ram spirit together and defeated Oldtown.

Their spiking and working as a team pulled together as the season progressed.

The Cheerleaders of Southern showed their spirit in many different ways this year. Starting out with football season where mothers of the football players helped out in a pep assembly by coming in and kissing their blindfolded son in front of the school. Then moving to basketball season where Larry Sanders highlighted most pep assemblies by giving a speech or eating pies that were hand made by Ken Niner. Finally moving to Wrestling Cheerleaders sparked their team to one of the best seasons ever.

When not decorating the halls, making victory hoops, or painting signs, one of these 26 cheerleaders could always be found running the halls trying to sell some kid a light switch plate, jewelry, chances, or a lollipop.

For the 3 senior squad members, 76-77 left many memories, but for the remaining 23 members it was another happy year to add to many more that are being dreamed about and will soon come true.

SENIORS

Once upon a time we lived with minds that dreamed, hearts that raced through everyday, and clocks that told no time. With common goals we laughed together, played together, won together, and lost together. Those were our school days, the happiest of our lives. They were alive because we made them that way. And then they faded into less carefree days of adulthood. Now they are gone . . . Our happy school day years.

Prom 77

Looks like we made it,
Led each other all the way.
With hearts and minds,
Through hard and trying days.

Looks like we made it,
Wondering through the years of time,
The night has passed away,
But the memories are here to stay.

Looks like we made it,
The merry-go-round has stopped.
It's time to face the world,
For now we must get out.

Crown-bearer Mike Vance and flower girl Heather Hesson. 9. Ken Niner and Rod Durst. 10. Iva Morris and Mike Custer.

The 1976-1977 Prom is now a time in the past. The excitement of buying gowns and picking up flowers are over.

The special event was held at the Wisp. During the dance, the juniors seemed to long for the future as the seniors reached for the past.

The band added the final touch to the evening with a theme song, "Looks like we made it."

1. Alicia Riggleman and Bill Reams. 2. Mrs. Sonia Pratt. 3. Pam Trickett and Ted Raynovich. 4. Kathy Sincell and Reg Messinger. 5. "Sound Affair." 6. Marsha Wolf and Randy Ashby. 7. "The Hands of Time." 8. Renee Sheally and Kevin Savage. 9. Norman Hanline and Diane Hinebaugh. 10. Carol Henn and Phil Green. 11. Rodney Durst. 12. Gail Rohrbaugh. 13. Linda Upole and Ray Shillingburg. 14. Aleta DelSignore and Ken Stinson.

Looks Like We Made It!

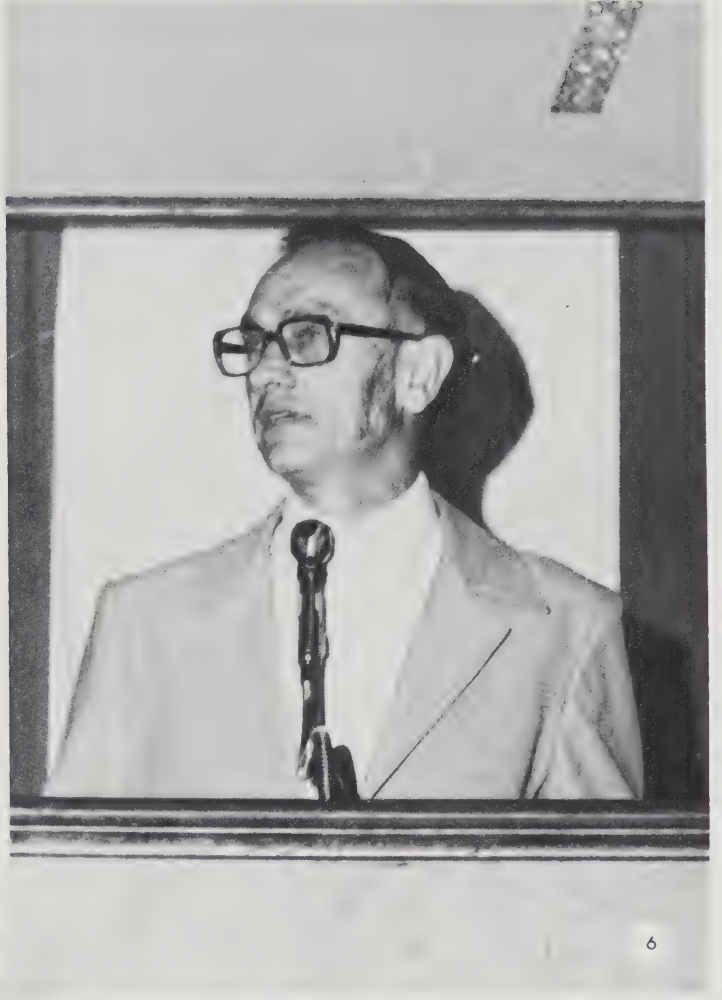

A Time To Remember

1. Sharon Naylor seems very happy to be graduating salutatorian of her class. 2. Rodney Durst, President of the Sr. class, welcomes the crowd to commencement. 3. Graduation is a happy time or so it seems for Diane Rodeheaver Kisner. 4. Senior practice for graduation as they remember those twelve tough years. 5. Diana Custer, Valedictorian of the "Class of 77" holds the award from the Cost Guard. 6. Rev. Remley gives the address to the Seniors. 7. The idea of graduating seems to please both Miss Avery and Iva Morris. 8. It's all over now and "It looks like we made it!"

Graduation is always a time to think back at all the wonderful times crammed into twelve short years. A time to leave old friends and meet some new. A time to discover.

1. Steve Ritchie and Iva Morris anticipate graduation with great big smiles for their futures. 2. Jack Chung Riley is the proud owner of the Danforth Award along with Susan Elizabeth Eberly. 3. It seems like the only way to get the whole senior class together is to hold practice for graduation. 4. Kathy Sincell beams as she receives her diploma from Dr. Buser. 5. No Clara! You can't go back. This is it, so go ahead. 6. Bob Schmidt isn't too bothered by the thought of moving on. 7. Now don't get too grabby Fred Griffith! You'll get your diploma soon enough. 8. Kim Kurilla is happy to be moving on.

Everyone is there, dressed in their red and white caps and gowns. They are the same people who have always been there. Is this the last time you will see them? Maybe, but you will always have fond memories of the years together and all the good times. Some may wish to move on while others wish to remain, but the time has come and there is little choice for anyone. The future must now shape and be shaped by the Class of "77." Hopefully they will never forget the years, friends, and times in Southern High School.

JUNIORS

Not a rookie, not a senior, just a little in between. Something like a sandwich; there's something above you and something below. There's something to look forward to and many memories to cherish.

We cheered the teams on to victory or defeat. We supported our class — just to make ends meet. We gave the seniors a prom and presented a terrific play. Something new was included in each day.

We're looking forward to tomorrow with excitement mixed with fear. Where our futures will lead us isn't quite clear.

Well, we've one more year in which to share. Just one more step up those never-ending stairs.

SOPHOMORES

This year's sophomore class, led by Tom Cuppett, pres.; Nancy Roberson vp; Lori Upole sec.; and Greg Parsons treas.; accomplished many new things. One of the highlights of the year was a dance held at the Armory featuring the "Black Mountain Band." Becoming part of the Senior High was a big step for many sophomores, along with converting over to only a Senior High School. But adjustments were made along with snow that fell and caused us to miss over a month of school. But it all worked out with happy smiles as we approached June 17.

FRESHMEN

We've only just begun and what the future holds in store for us is unknown. Sometimes up, sometimes down, always cheerful along the way. Wishes, dreams, hopes, and fears of what will become of all of us. We strive for perfection, learning from our faults. It's a kind of disappointment when we think "three more years to go" but looking back at the nine we've come, we decide to keep on truckin'.

EDUCATORS

1977 — a year of adjustment, change, and progress. This year the teachers were faced with many unique situations.

It was a big adjustment to get used to teaching strictly senior high classes. After Christmas, when the staff had just gotten used to the changes, they were faced with another dilemma. Due to inclement weather, it was the responsibility of the professional staff to see that the students were prepared to go on to their next grade level. This forced the staff to put in many extra hours of planning.

Even though they were often the butt of criticism, through the help of their administration, the teachers were able to achieve their final goal.

The 1976-77 school year has been both interesting and unusual. This has been our first year as strictly a Senior High School and the much needed relief afforded by the opening of Southern Middle School has been an improvement. Such facts as changing classes in one shift instead of two, five hundred fewer students using the cafeteria, the elimination of several hundred high pitched immature juvenile voices, and the somewhat more mature and deliberate movement of older students in the hall, have made a noticeable improvement of the general character of the school.

As a school we are a reflection of our whole community. There are many individuals within our student body who are outstanding examples of all the higher goals we have for all young people. But as our larger community has room for improvement so we, as a school, also can improve.

With the cooperation of the student body and your parents, we can see as much improvement in 1977-78 as I feel we have realized this year.

In the beginning our lives were that of a child. Our ideas were fragile and our morals, unsure. We were guided down the path of life by those with wisdom and knowledge but as we journeyed forward, our minds began to wander; escaping in other directions, reaching for responsibility and statue. We developed ideas for ourselves realizing our goals in life as the future became the past, the dreams became reality, and the life imagined became a life lived.
